Section 2. Powers. In furtherance of the foregoing purposes, the Corporation may (i) receive property (including, without limitation, membership interests or ownership interests in PREMERA, a Washington nonprofit miscellaneous corporation, or any successor thereto, including without limitation stock in a for-profit corporation that is a successor thereto) (collectively, the “PREMERA Interests”) in connection with PREMERA’s conversion from a nonprofit corporation to a for-profit corporation or otherwise; (ii) invest and reinvest the same, and consistent with the provisions hereof, applicable law, and any agreement, plan, or other instrument governing the property of the Corporation, apply the income and principal thereof, as the Board of Directors may from time to time determine either directly or through contributions to any charitable organization or organizations that are tax-exempt under the Code, exclusively for charitable, scientific, or educational purposes, provided that such contributions shall only be made for, and their use restricted to, promoting the health of the residents of the State of Washington ; and (iii) engage in any lawful activity which may be necessary, useful, or desirable for the furtherance, accomplishment, fostering, or attainment of the foregoing purposes, either directly or indirectly, and either alone or in conjunction or cooperation with others, whether such others be persons or organizations of any kind or nature, such as corporations, firms, associations, trusts, institutions, foundations, or governmental bureaus, departments, or agencies. Section 4. Annual Reporting. The Corporation shall report to the public at least annually information about the Corporation, which, by way of guideline only, shall be substantially equivalent to that required of organizations qualified under Section 501(c)(3) of the Code.

Section 5. Lobbying. The Corporation shall not devote more than an insubstantial portion of its activities that, within the meaning of the Code, would constitute lobbying, the carrying on of propaganda or otherwise attempting to influence legislation. Notwithstanding the purposes set forth above, (i) the Corporation shall not use any proceeds from the sale of PREMERA Interests, or any investment income on such proceeds as invested and reinvested, in furtherance of any activities that would constitute lobbying within the meaning of the Code and (ii) the Corporation shall not engage in any lobbying, within the meaning of the Code, in relation to any matters that may result in material adverse changes in the operations of Health Insurers. “Health Insurer” shall be defined as any entity engaged in the business of providing coverage of or the administration of health benefits, including, without limitation, any health insurer, health care service contractor, hospital and medical service corporation, health maintenance organization, health carrier or health plan in Washington.

DIRECTOR LIABILITY LIMITATIONS

Section 1. General. A director of the Corporation shall have the same immunity from liability as is granted in RCW 4.24.264. No director of the Corporation shall be personally liable to the Corporation for monetary damages for acts or omissions as a director, unless such act or omission involves (a) intentional misconduct or a knowing violation of law by the director, (b) a violation of RCW 23B.08.310, (c) gross negligence or (d) any transaction from which the director will personally receive a benefit in money, property, or services to which the director is not legally entitled. If the Act is hereafter amended to authorize corporate action further eliminating or limiting the personal liability of directors, then the liability of a director shall be deemed eliminated or limited to the full extent permitted by the Act, as so amended. Any repeal or modification of this Article shall not adversely affect any right or protection of a director of the Corporation existing at the time of such repeal or modification for, or with respect to, an act or omission of such director occurring prior to such repeal or modification.

Section 2. Assets in Trust. If and to the extent assets held by the Corporation are deemed to be held in trust for purposes of RCW Chapter 11.100, the specific requirements of such Chapter shall be expanded, restricted, eliminated or otherwise altered by the provisions of the Corporation's Articles and Bylaws. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, the directors of the Corporation (and any officer, employee or agent acting under such directors) shall be relieved of the following duties and limitations under RCW Chapter 11.100 with respect to the Corporation's receiving, holding and/or disposing of membership or ownership interests in PREMERA (or any successor thereto) ("PREMERA Interests"):

- (b) The ten percent (10%) limit of RCW 11.100.023;
- (c) Any duty to beneficiaries under RCW 11.100.045;
- (d) The duty to diversify investments under RCW 11.100.047;
- (e) Any duty to diversify, or to exercise due care and prudence in the disposition or retention of the PREMERA Interests, under RCW 11.100.060;
- (f) The duties of RCW 11.100.130 if deemed applicable to the directors;
- (g) The requirements of RCW 11.100.140; and

Section 2. Authority to Indemnify. Pursuant to RCW 23B.08.560, the Corporation shall have the power and duty to indemnify, including advancing Expenses to, any Director, Officer, Employee or Agent of the Corporation made, or threatened to be made, a party to any Proceeding by reason of the fact that he or she is, or was, a Director, Officer, Employee or Agent of the Corporation, or arising out of his or her activities undertaken on behalf of the Corporation, without regard to the limitations in RCW 23B.08.510 through 23B.08.550, except that such indemnity shall not apply on account of:

(a) acts or omissions of such person finally adjudged to be intentional misconduct, a knowing violation of law or gross negligence;

(b) with respect to Directors, conduct of the Director finally adjudged to be in violation of RCW 23B.08.310; or

(c) any transaction with respect to which it was finally adjudged that such person personally received a benefit in money, property, or services to which the person was not legally entitled.

This indemnity shall continue after a person has ceased to be a Director, Officer, Employee or Agent of the Corporation and may inure to the benefit of the heirs, executors, and administrators of such a person.

Section 3. Indemnification Rights of Directors, Officers, Employees and Agents. Notwithstanding Section 2 hereof, the Corporation shall indemnify its Directors, Officers, Employees and Agents to the full extent permitted by applicable law as then in effect against Liability arising out of a Proceeding to which such individual was made a Party because the individual is or was a Director, Officer, Employee or Agent of the Corporation. The Corporation shall advance Expenses incurred by such persons who are parties to a Proceeding in advance of final disposition of the Proceeding, as provided herein. The right to indemnification and the payment of Expenses conferred in this Article shall not be exclusive of any other right which any person may have or hereafter acquire under any statute, provision of the Articles of Incorporation, Bylaws, agreement, vote of disinterested Directors or otherwise.

Section 4. Procedure for Seeking Indemnification and/or Advancement of Expenses.

Section 4.1. Notification and Defense of Claim. Indemnatee shall promptly notify the Corporation, in any manner and by any means permitted under the Act, of any Proceeding for which indemnification could be sought under this Article. In addition, Indemnatee shall give the Corporation such information and cooperation as it may reasonably require and as shall be within Indemnatee's power. With respect to any such Proceeding as to which Indemnatee has notified the Corporation:

- (a) The Corporation shall be entitled to participate therein at its own expense; or
- (b) Except as otherwise provided below, to the extent that it may wish, the Corporation, jointly with any other indemnifying Party similarly notified, will be entitled to assume the defense thereof, with counsel satisfactory to Indemnatee. Indemnatee's consent to such counsel may not be unreasonably withheld.

After notice from the Corporation to Indemnatee of its election to assume the defense, the Corporation will not be liable to Indemnatee under this Article for any Expenses subsequently incurred by Indemnatee in connection with such defense. However, Indemnatee shall continue to have the right to employ its counsel in such Proceeding, if:

- (i) The employment of counsel by Indemnatee has been authorized by the Corporation, in which case all Expenses shall be borne by Indemnatee;
- (ii) Indemnatee shall have reasonably concluded that there may be a conflict of interest between the Corporation and Indemnatee in the conduct of such defense, in which case all Expenses shall be borne by Indemnatee; or
- (iii) The Corporation shall not, in fact, have employed counsel to assume the defense of such Proceeding, in which case Expenses related to Indemnatee's counsel shall be borne by the Corporation.

The Corporation shall not be entitled to assume the defense of any Proceeding brought by, or on behalf of, the Corporation or as to which Indemnatee shall reasonably have made the conclusion that a conflict of interest may exist between the Corporation and the Indemnatee in the conduct of the defense.

Section 4.2. Information to be Submitted and Method of Determination and Authorization of Indemnification. For the purpose of pursuing rights to indemnification under this Article, Indemnatee shall submit to the Board or Directors a sworn statement requesting indemnification and reasonable evidence of all amounts for which such indemnification is requested (together, the sworn statement and the evidence constitute an “Indemnification Statement”).

Submission of an Indemnification Statement to the Board of Directors shall create a presumption that the Indemnatee is entitled to indemnification hereunder, and the Corporation shall, within sixty (60) calendar days thereafter, make the payments requested in the Indemnification Statement to, or for the benefit of, the Indemnatee, unless: (a) within such sixty (60) calendar day period it shall be determined by the Corporation that the Indemnatee is not entitled to indemnification under this Article; (b) such vote shall be based upon clear and convincing evidence (sufficient to rebut the foregoing presumption); and (c) the Indemnatee shall receive notice of such determination, which notice shall be given in any manner and by any means permitted under the Act, and shall disclose with particularity the evidence upon which the determination is based.

The foregoing determination shall be made (a) by the Board of Directors by majority vote of a quorum consisting of Directors not at the time parties to the Proceeding; (b) if a quorum cannot be obtained under (a) in this paragraph, by majority vote of a committee duly designated by the Board of Directors, in which designation Directors who are parties may participate, consisting solely of two or more Directors not at the time parties to the Proceeding; or (c) special legal counsel selected by the majority vote of a quorum of the Board of Directors not at the time parties to the Proceeding.

Any determination that the Indemnatee is not entitled to indemnification, and any failure to make the payments requested in the Indemnification Statement, shall be subject to judicial review by any court of competent jurisdiction.

Section 4.3. Special Procedure Regarding Advance for Expenses. An Indemnatee seeking payment of Expenses in advance of a final disposition of the Proceeding must furnish the Corporation, as part of the Indemnification Statement:

- (a) an affirmation, given in any manner and by any means permitted under the Act, of the Indemnatee’s good faith belief that the Indemnatee has met the standard of conduct required to be eligible for indemnification; and
- (b) an undertaking, made in any manner and by any means permitted under the Act, constituting an unlimited general obligation of the Indemnatee, to repay the advance if it is ultimately determined by the final disposition of a court of competent jurisdiction that the Indemnatee did not meet the required standard of conduct.

If the Corporation determines that indemnification is authorized, the Indemnatee’s request for advance of Expenses shall be granted.

Section 4.4. Settlement. The Corporation is not liable to indemnify Indemnitee for any amounts paid in settlement of any Proceeding without the Corporation's consent, given in any manner and by any means permitted under the Act. The Corporation shall not settle any Proceeding in any manner that would impose any penalty or limitation on Indemnitee without Indemnitee's consent, given in any manner and by any means permitted under the Act. Neither the Corporation nor Indemnitee may unreasonably withhold its consent to a proposed settlement.

Section 5. Contract and Related Rights.

Section 5.1. Contract Rights. The right of an Indemnitee to indemnification and advancement of Expenses is a contract right upon which the Indemnitee shall be presumed to have relied in determining to serve, or to continue to serve, in his or her capacity with the Corporation. Such right shall continue as long as the Indemnitee shall be subject to any possible Proceeding. Any amendment to, or repeal of, this Article shall not adversely affect any right or protection of an Indemnitee with respect to any acts or omissions of such Indemnitee occurring prior to such amendment or repeal.

Section 5.2. Optional Insurance, Contracts, and Funding. The Corporation may:

- (a) maintain insurance, at its expense, to protect itself and any Indemnitee against any Liability;
- (b) enter into contracts with any Indemnitee in furtherance of this Article and consistent with the Act; and
- (c) create a trust fund, grant a security interest, or use other means (including, without limitation, a letter of credit) to ensure the payment of such amounts as may be necessary to effect indemnification as provided in this Article.

The Corporation's indemnity of any person indemnified by this Article VIII, or who is otherwise entitled to indemnification, shall be reduced by any amount collected by such person (i) under an insurance policy purchased in such person's behalf by the Corporation or another person or entity, (ii) from another person or entity.

Section 5.3. Severability. If any provision or application of this Article shall be invalid or unenforceable, the remainder of this Article and its remaining applications shall not be affected thereby, and shall continue in full force and effect.

Section 5.4. Right of Indemnitee to Bring Suit. If (a) a claim under this Article for indemnification is not paid in full by the Corporation within sixty (60) days after a claim, given in any manner and by any means permitted under the Act, has been received by the Corporation; or (b) a claim under this Article for advancement of Expenses is not paid in full by the Corporation within twenty (20) days after claim, given in any manner and by any means permitted under the Act, has been received by the Corporation, then the Indemnitee may, but need not, at any time thereafter bring suit against the Corporation to recover the unpaid amount of the claim. To the extent successful in whole or in part, the Indemnatee shall be entitled to also be paid the expense (to be proportionately prorated if the Indemnatee is only partially successful) of prosecuting such claim.

Neither (a) the failure of the Corporation (including its Board of Directors or independent legal counsel) to have made a determination prior to the commencement of such Proceeding that indemnification or reimbursement or advancement of Expenses to the Indemnatee is proper in the circumstances, nor (b) an actual determination by the Corporation (including its Board of Directors or its independent legal counsel) that the Indemnatee is not entitled to indemnification or to the reimbursement or advancement of Expenses, shall be a defense to the Proceeding or create a presumption that the Indemnatee is not so entitled.

Section 5.5. Contribution. If an Indemnatee is not paid the indemnification provided in this Article VIII for any reason other than because the indemnification is prohibited by the Act (for example, because indemnification is held to be against the public policy even though otherwise permitted under this Article), then in any Proceeding in which the Corporation is jointly liable with the Indemnatee (or would be if joined in such Proceeding), the Corporation shall contribute to the Indemnatee's loss in an amount that reflects the following:

- the relative benefits received by the Corporation as compared to the Indemnatee from the transaction from which such Proceeding arose, and
- the relative fault of the Corporation as compared to the Indemnatee that resulted in such loss, and
- any other equitable consideration.

The relative benefits received by, and fault of, the Corporation on the one hand, and the Indemnatee on the other shall be determined by a court of appropriate jurisdiction (which may be the same court in which the Proceeding took place) with reference to, among other things, the parties' relative intent, knowledge, access to information, and opportunity to correct or prevent the circumstances resulting in such loss. The Corporation agrees that it would not be just and equitable if contribution pursuant to this section was determined by pro rata allocation or any other method of allocation that does not take account of the foregoing equitable considerations.

Section 6. Exceptions. Any other provision herein to the contrary notwithstanding, the Corporation shall not be obligated pursuant to the terms of this Article to indemnify or advance Expenses to Indemnatee with respect to any Proceeding:

Section 6.1. Claims Initiated by Indemnatee. Initiated or brought voluntarily by Indemnatee and not by way of defense, except with respect to Proceedings brought to establish or enforce a right to indemnification under the Bylaws, or any other statute or law or as otherwise required under the statute; but such indemnification or advancement of Expenses may be provided by the Corporation in specific cases if the Board of Directors finds it to be appropriate.

Section 6.2. Lack of Good Faith. Instituted by Indemnatee to enforce or interpret rights under the Bylaws, if a court of competent jurisdiction determines that each of the material assertions made by Indemnatee in such Proceeding was not made in good faith or was frivolous.

Section 6.3. Insured Claims. For which any of the Expenses or Liabilities for indemnification is being sought have been paid directly to Indemnatee by an insurance carrier under a policy of officers' and directors' liability insurance maintained by the Corporation.

Section 6.4. Prohibited by Law. If the Corporation is prohibited by the Act or other applicable law as then in effect from paying such indemnification and/or advancement of Expenses.

ARTICLE IX BYLAWS

Bylaws of the Corporation may be adopted by the Board of Directors at any regular meeting or any special meeting called for that purpose, so long as they are not inconsistent with the provisions of these Articles of Incorporation. The authority to make, alter, amend, or repeal Bylaws is vested in the Board of Directors and may be exercised at any regular or special meeting of the Board of Directors by the affirmative vote of three-fourths (3/4) of the directors then in office and advance written approval of the Attorney General of the State of Washington.

ARTICLE X AMENDMENT

These Articles of Incorporation may be amended by the directors upon (i) the affirmative vote of three-fourths (3/4) of the directors then in office, but in no event can Article III ("Purposes and Powers") be amended to be inconsistent with the purpose of promoting the health of the residents of the State of Washington; and (ii) other than with respect to amendments of Article XI ("Registered Office and Agent"), no amendments to the Articles of Incorporation may be adopted without the advance written approval of the Attorney General of the State of Washington.

ARTICLE XI REGISTERED OFFICE AND AGENT

The address of the initial registered office of the Corporation shall be 925 Fourth Avenue, Suite 2900, Seattle, Washington 98104-1158. The name of the initial registered agent of the Corporation at such address shall be CT Corporation.

ARTICLE XII DISSOLUTION

Upon the winding up and dissolution of the Corporation, the assets of the Corporation remaining after payment of, or provision for payment of, all debts and liabilities of the Corporation, shall be distributed to a charitable organization or organizations recognized as tax-exempt under section 501(c)(3) of the Code, or a successor provision thereof, and used exclusively to accomplish the Corporation's purposes.
